

Western Canada

As the Camera Sees It

The Picture Story of Western Canada

THESE SCENES are actual photographs, and tell more emphatically than any words, the story of successful agricultural production in Western Canada. They argue convincingly that you, too, can find prosperity and happiness on these low-priced fertile lands.

Here grain grows magically—pasture lands are a paradise for stock. Here is opportunity for farmer and stock-man alike. All your dreams of low priced land that yields abundant crops are answered in Western Canada. Here nature has provided the opportunity for the man with small capital.

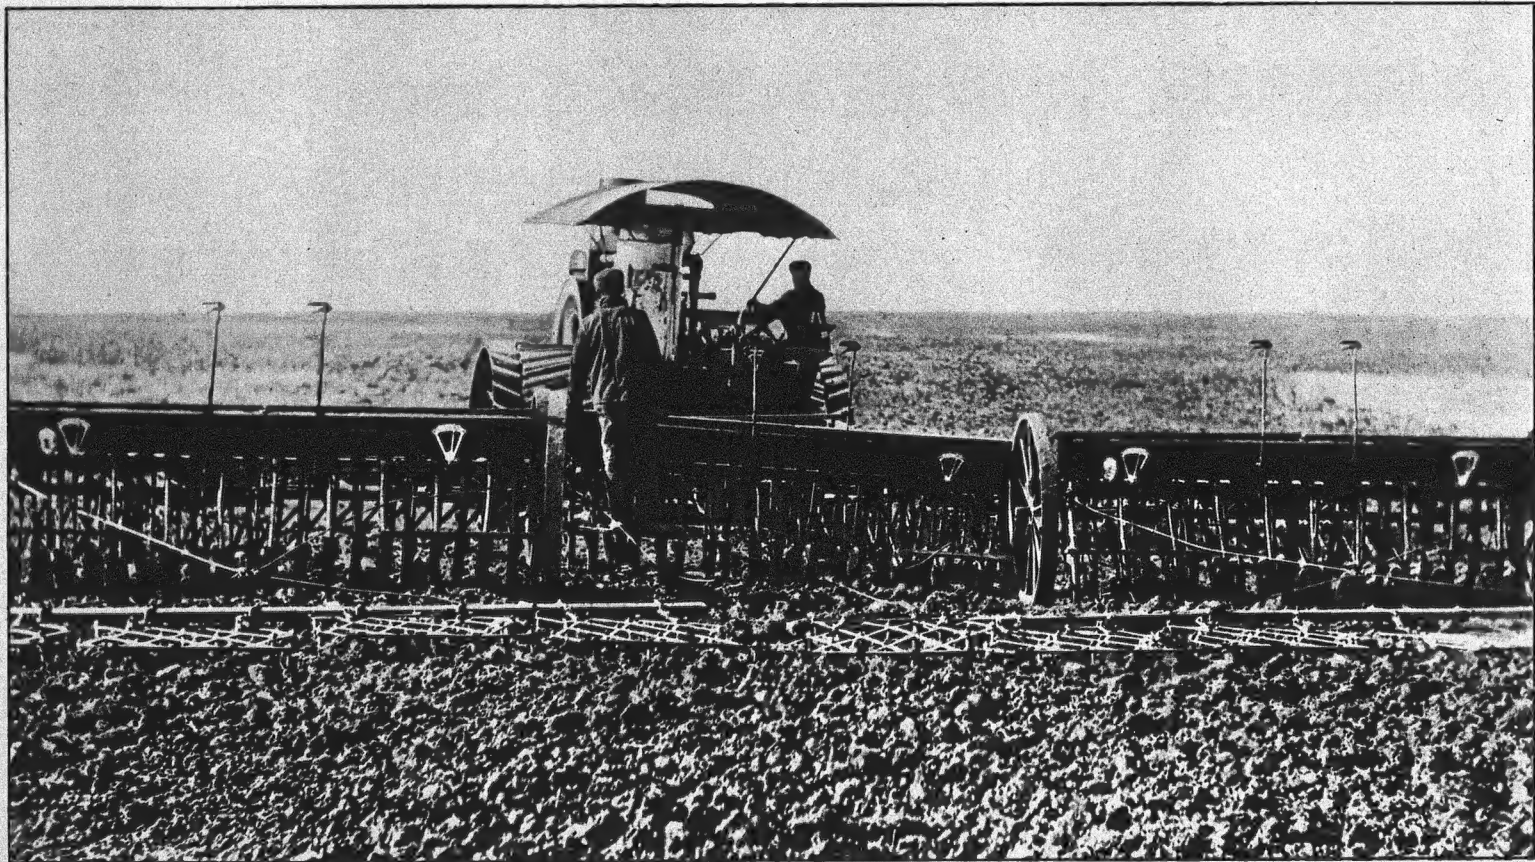

Land exactly like this can be purchased at an average of twenty dollars an acre, and paid for over a period of thirty-five years. These liberal terms should guarantee your success. Come now to Western Canada. Opportunity offers you a share of this last fertile garden and bids you accept Canada's hearty "Welcome."

Western Canada

As the Camera Sees It

Home and buildings on Wm. Rudd's farm in Western Canada

Seeding and Harrowing. The soil is rich and fertile

19360

PAM 630.9712
C212 W
C.I

Breaking new land. Thousands of acres of this rich black loam await your plow

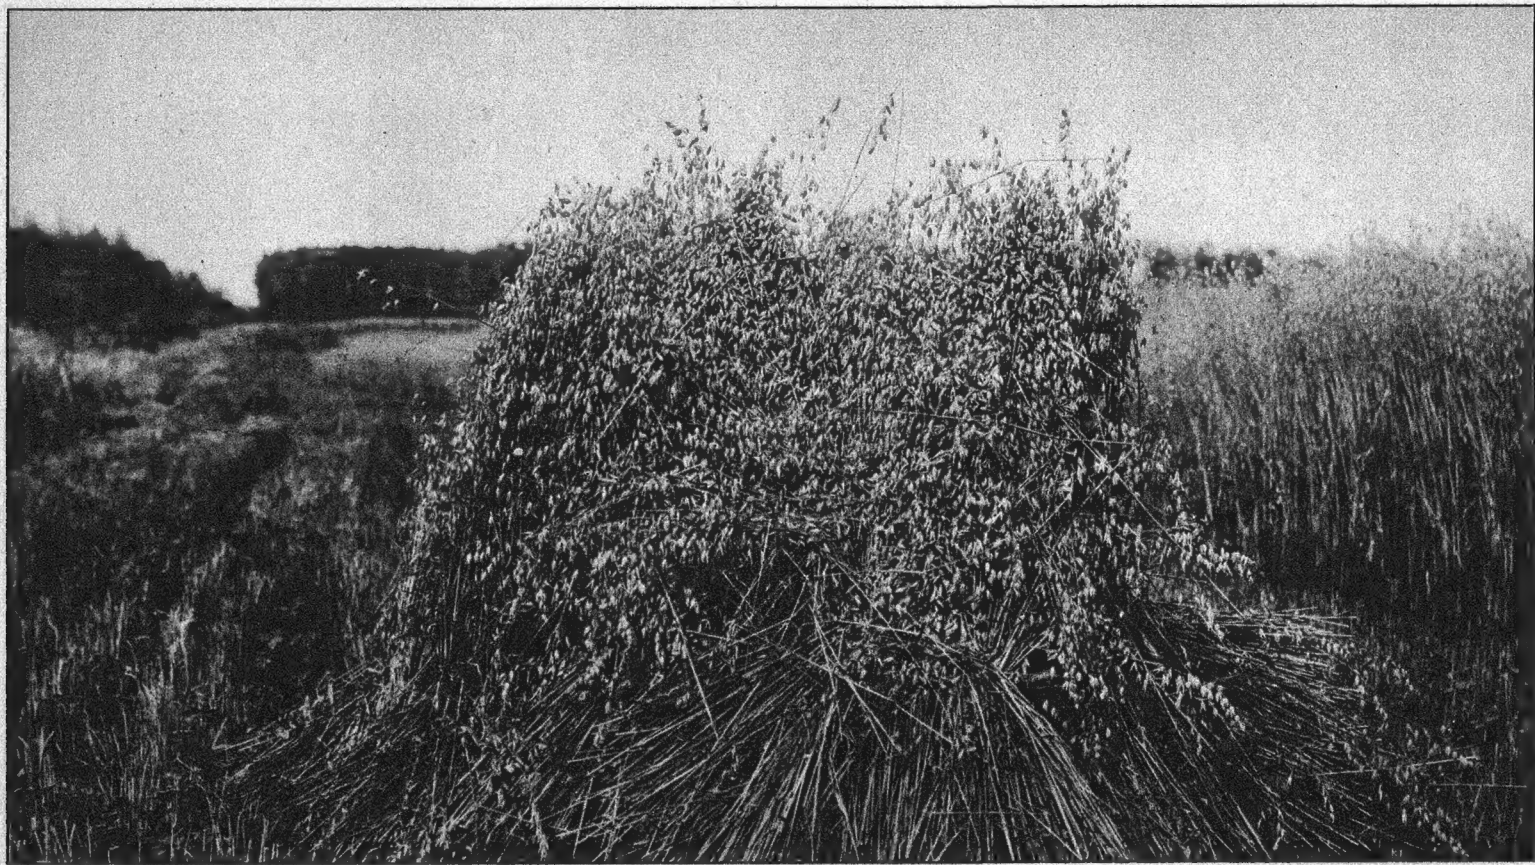

64.94/15

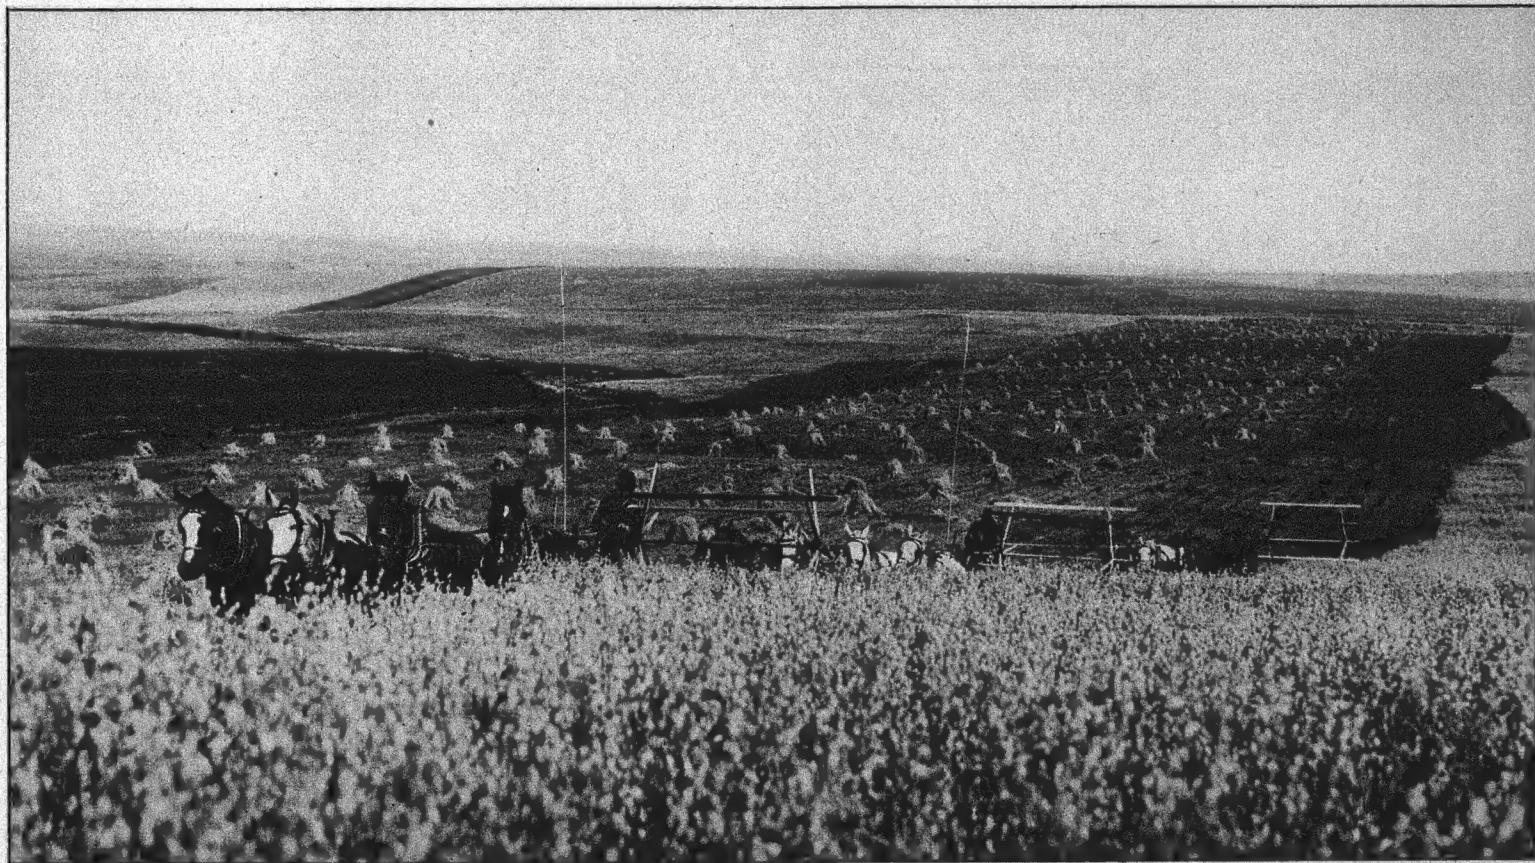

Plowing land. Neighbors gladly cooperate in this work

A close-up of wheat on a Swastika Farm owned by Mrs. Davis. This field is typical of Western Canada

Oats grow abundantly in Western Canada with big yields per acre.

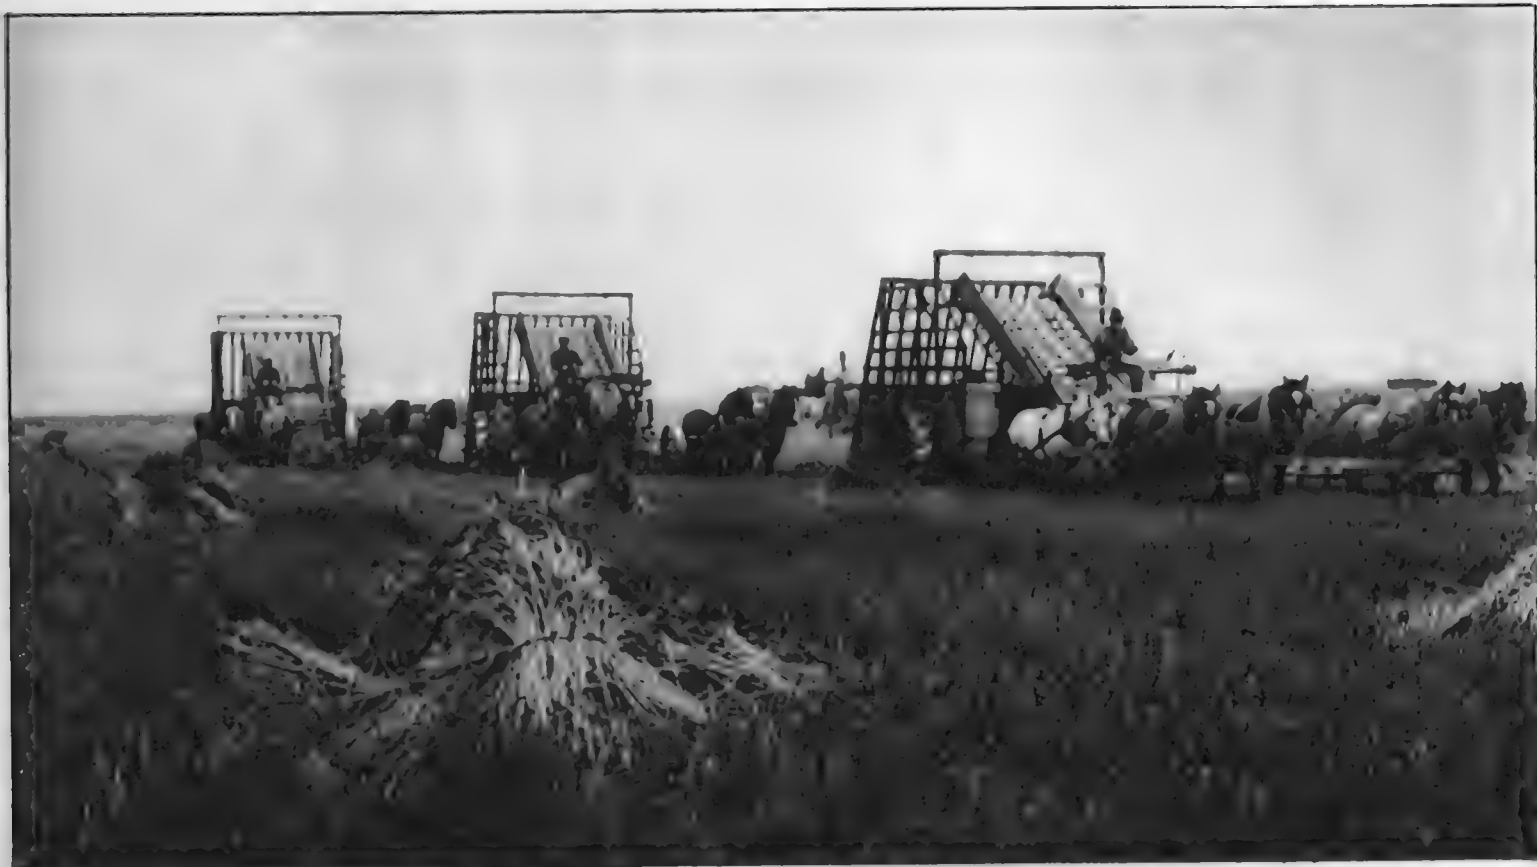

Cutting wheat on the Anderson Ranch in Western Canada. The fields stretch for miles

Cabbages grow large in Western Canada. Crops like this are common

Cutting sunflowers for silage. These grow to a height of 10 feet

"Stook" loaders at work on a typical farm in Western Canada

Wheat—King of crops! 40 bushels to the acre is not uncommon

Miles of Potatoes! Worth thousands of dollars in ready markets

Dairy cattle. North Battleford in the background. Dairymen prosper here

A valley of ripe grain: Assinaboine Valley in Western Canada

Cutting barley on Round T Ranch. Big crops make feeding cheap

Beef Cattle on Pasture. Unlimited range makes stockraising a big industry

Sheep are money-makers too! Pasture is plentiful and luxuriant

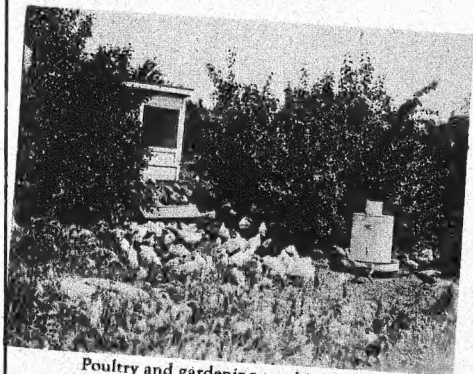

Digging potatoes. Such fields are gold mines in Western Canada

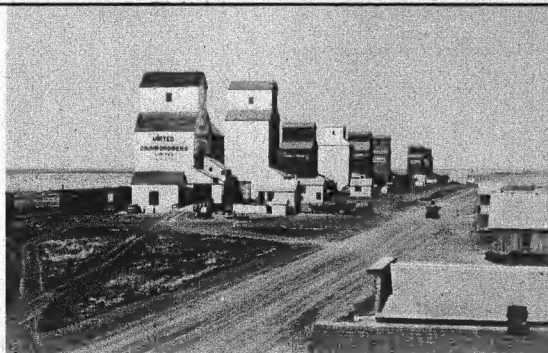

Haying in the Lloydminster District. Yields are heavy and it is a profitable crop

Hogs are big profit makers in Western Canada. Cheap food makes them so

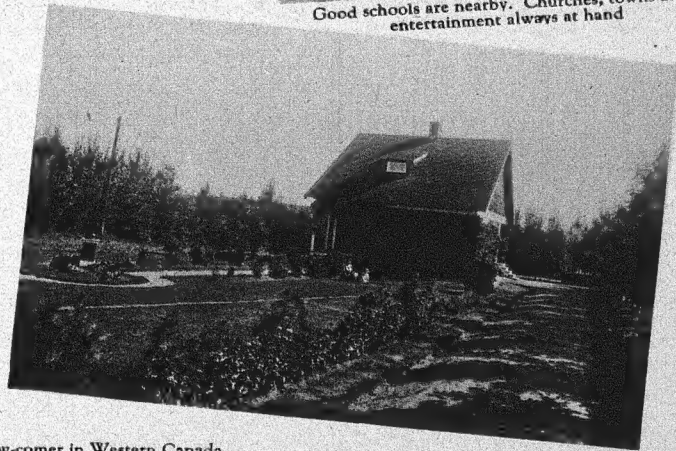

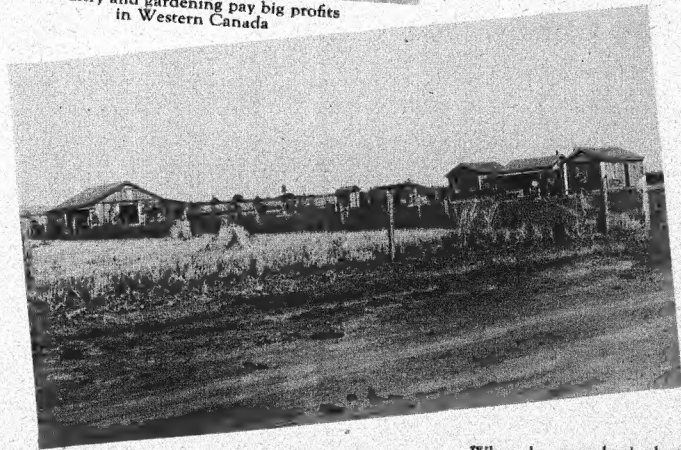

Poultry and gardening pay big profits
in Western Canada

Market is nearby. Eight elevators at Barons in Western Canada.
Good roads everywhere

Good schools are nearby. Churches, towns and entertainment always at hand

Where he started—the home of a new-comer in Western Canada

For Further Information and Free Illustrated Literature, Write

L. F. Mowrey, Assistant Superintendent
Madison Avenue at 44th, New York, N. Y.

J. N. K. MacAlister, Assistant Superintendent
Hackney Building, Fourth and Jackson Streets,
St. Paul, Minnesota.

R. C. Bosworth, Assistant Superintendent
202 Exchange National Bank Building,
Spokane, Washington.

L. P. Thornton, Assistant Superintendent
208 Railway Exchange Building, Third and Stark Streets, Portland, Oregon.

C. A. Vanscoy, Assistant Superintendent
299 Monadnock Building, San Francisco, Calif.

P. L. Naismith, Manager
Department of Natural Resources, C. P. R.
Calgary, Alberta.

J. Miller
Department of Natural Resources, C. P. R.
Edmonton, Alberta.

W. J. Gerow
Department of Natural Resources, C. P. R.
Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

F. W. Russell
Department of Natural Resources, C. P. R.
Winnipeg, Manitoba.

C. LaDue Norwood
Department of Natural Resources, C. P. R.
Montreal, Quebec.

or M. E. Thornton, Superintendent of Colonization, Canadian Pacific Railway, Winnipeg, Canada